CASK No. 10.153 THE PRINCE OF QUINCE

REGION: Islay
 COUNTRY: Scotland
 AGE: 12 Years
 DATE DESTILLED: 25th May 2005
 CASK TYPE: Refill Ex-Bourbon Barrel
 OUTTURN: 198 Bottles
 ABV: 60,6 %

DESCRIPTION

Curiously harmonious aromas beckoned us for a closer inspection as shortbread formed an allegiance with heather, quince and prickly gorse bushes in bloom. Something spicy lingered like ginger cake and peppercorn sauce with its joyfully oily texture. Subtle woody notes washed up like driftwood on a warm sandy beach that developed into a salty twang of sea air. A hefty wallop of chilli on the tongue softened into dried flowers which in turn morphed into dried herbs with the distinct character of sugar coated fennel seeds. Fresh ginger danced around white pepper before a coat of green lay down shades of grape skin, green olives and gooseberries with a hint of marzipan. The finish touched on parsley and left us with the welcome oiliness of juniper berries.

All on grappa and cut grass to begin. Then toasted seeds, raw barley, chalk, crushed aspirin and turmeric. Delicate notes of quinine, soft waxes, canvas and sheep wool add complexity. Water brings out old ink wells, fabric, long-cupboarded linen, white flowers, tea tree oil, eucalyptus resin, vase water and carnations. The palate displays a tropical edge at first with notes of white jellybeans, clove oil, honeydew melon, rapeseed oil, mineral aspects, aged Loire chenin blanc, green pepper and mustard powder. Add water and out comes sweet lemon barley water, passion fruit, scone mix, lemon jelly, sweet wort, baking soda and a fizzy yeasty note. Some peppery notes in the finish along with tree bark and earth.

GREEN FINGERS, NOUGAT AND GINGER

THE SCOTCH MALT WHISKY SOCIETY

REGION: Speyside
 COUNTRY: Scotland
 AGE: 10 Years
 DATE DESTILLED: 1st February 2007
 CASK TYPE: Second Fill American Oak Ex-Bourbon Barrel
 OUTTURN: 244 Bottles
 ABV: 59,5 %

DESCRIPTION

The nose carried a freshness that took us immediately to newly mowed and well-kept grass lawns, framed by lavender bushes and herb beds with the distinct scent of fresh peppermint. The subtle smell of peach stone combined with jasmine tea and lily of the valley before becoming sweeter as Turkish Delight blended with nougat, almonds and coconut shavings. The palate quickly turned from spicy chilli and ginger to butterscotch and orange with a softening texture that sat somewhere between chalky sweets and thick cream. Water returned us to perfumed realms as melon and violet liqueur aligned with tangy satsuma and sandalwood spice. The finish displayed the mouth-coating tannins of dark chocolate yet with a lively dance from fizzy orange and ginger.

SPICY AS HELL - TASTY AS WELL!

REGION: Highlands
COUNTRY: Scotland
AGE: 10 Years
DATE DESTILLED: 29th August 2008
CASK TYPE: First Fill Ex-Bourbon Barrel
OUTTURN: 232 Bottles
ABV: 61,6 %

DESCRIPTION

An intriguing nose neat, 'like making toffee sauce' or 'roasting coffee beans' just two of a number of ways to describe the aroma. On the palate however there was only one comment, after we recovered, 'spicy as hell - however tasty as well!' It was like a really hot jalapeno salsa or a fiery Japanese wasabi paste. With water what a change. Sweet, like cherry lips and white marshmallow mice (both scented fruit gums) whilst to taste now - a total transformation, calm and sweet as well as fruity like an apple cream pie - bringing a smile to our faces.
